Name of the Project: Revenue Administration Modernization Project (RAMP)

Project ID: P130202

Loan No: 8261 - RO

Assignment Title: Development of Internal Control Function[1]

Reference No. (as per Procurement Plan): RAMP/CS/4

The Romanian National Agency for Fiscal Administration (NAFA) has received a loan from the World Bank toward the cost of the Revenue Administration Modernization Project and intends to apply part of the proceeds for consulting services aiming to develop the Internal Control Function.

The consulting services ("the Services") include assistance to:

improve the internal control function of NAFA; develop methodology and procedures for exercising internal control activities, in accordance with accepted good practice in the EU and internationally; deliver train-of-trainers program for the General Directorate for Integrity staff; develop criteria for internal control risk analysis and provide functional requirements for the development of the information system to support control activities; organize a study visit for internal control officials in a modern tax administration.

The indicative duration of subcomponent RAMP/CS/4 – Development of Internal Control Function is of 3 years, starting with August 2014. The tentative schedule would comprise: two months during the first year of the project (2014), three months during the second year of the project (2015) and one month during the third year of the project (2016).

The National Agency for Fiscal Administration (NAFA) now invites eligible consulting firms ("Consultants") to indicate their interest in providing the Services. Interested Consultants should provide information demonstrating that they have the required qualifications and relevant experience to perform the Services. The short listing criteria are as presented in the table below:

The attention of interested Consultants is drawn to paragraph 1.9 of the World Bank's Guidelines: Selection and Employment of Consultants under IBRD Loans and IDA Credits & Grant by World Bank Borrowers, from January 2011 ("Consultant Guidelines"), setting forth the World Bank's policy on conflict of interest.

Consultants may associate with other firms in the form of a joint venture, association or consortium that may or may not be a new legal entity between members who would be jointly and severally liable for the performance of the contract. The Consultant should indicate whether the Expression of Interest (EoI) is being submitted as a Joint Venture or otherwise. The experience and references of sub-consultants shall not be taken into account in the evaluation of EoIs.

A Consultant will be selected in accordance with the Quality and Cost-Based Selection method (QCBS) set out in the Consultant Guidelines.

Consultants must provide all information indicating that they are qualified to perform the services (brochures, description of similar assignments, experience in similar conditions, availability of appropriate skills among staff, etc).

Further information can be obtained at the address below during office hours 8.30 to 17.00 Monday to Thursday and 8.30 to 14.30 on Friday.
